

Growing as One

Our personnel policy is to create the most international workforce possible and weld it together as a team.

On average every third team member has another nationality; a diversity we are particularly proud of, as it nurtures a global culture full of opportunities for valuable knowledge transfer. As many members also share the same experiences when starting out in a new country, we lend each other a helping hand, which encourages us all to work as partners.

Take a closer look at the latest open positions:

► Career Opportunities

